Subject: UNESCO L'OREAL International Fellowships for Young Women in Life Science 2013.

I have pleasure in informing you that within the framework of the UNESCO cosponsored fellowship scheme, L'OREAL has generously agreed to renew the offer to finance fifteen fellowships for the promotion of young women who are carrying out research in the life sciences all over the world.

The programme is offered in an open competition and a maximum of four young women from each of the five geo-cultural regions of the world, will be awarded the fellowship.

Candidates must already be engaged in pursuing research at the doctoral or post doctoral level in one or more of the allied fields of life sciences including biology, biochemistry, biotechnology, agriculture, medicine, pharmacy and physiology. Projects involving animal models are rejected and preference is given to non cosmetic researches.

The target group, eligibility, criteria, conditions for application procedures and terms of the fellowships are set out in the annex to this letter. The deadline for submission of applications being 15th July 2012. It is kindly requested that nominations be submitted to this office not later than 06th July 2012 for on ward transmission to UNESCO Paris.

Please note that the necessary UNESCO fellowship application form and details of the fellowship are annexed herewith.
